WINSTON

By Fonzie, Canine Editor

In the heartwarming world of furry companions, few stories shine as brightly as that of Winston, a spirited 4-year-old Yorkie who has captured the hearts of everyone he meets. He is the Grand-dog of Sue and Doug Gimmer, who wanted to share his story. From his beginnings in the chilly climate of Canada to his sun-soaked adventures in Florida, Winston's life is a testament to joy, fun, and an insatiable love for water. Winston's journey began at a breeder in Canada, where his bright eyes and playful spirit quickly made him a favorite. It was love at first sight for his parents Christopher and Katie, who whisked him away to start a new chapter together. Little did they know this tiny Yorkie would bring an ocean of happiness and a few splashes of water into their lives. From the moment Winston joined his forever family, his obsession with water became evident. Shower time turned into playtime as Winston eagerly waited for the splash of water, his little paws dancing with excitement. His love for water didn't stop there; Winston discovered the joy of swimming and could often be found doing laps in the pool, his fur gleaming under the sun. But there's more to Winston than his aquatic antics. This Yorkie is exceptionally smart and loves showing off his repertoire of tricks. Whether it's offering a paw, playing dead, spinning, dancing, or lying down on command, Winston never fails to impress. His intelligence and eagerness to please make him a star in his family's eyes and a delight to anyone who sees his performances. Winston is also quite the athlete and will challenge anyone in his vicinity to an intense game of ballie. No matter how tired you are at the end of a long day, Winston will not take no for an answer. Life took an adventurous turn when Winston and his parents moved from Canada to Florida. The journey in a U-Haul truck was filled with new sights, sounds, and smells, and Winston handled it like a true champ. Despite the long drive, his enthusiasm never wavered. With each mile, Winston's curiosity grew, and by the time they reached their new home, he was ready to explore every nook and cranny. Winston also finds joy visiting his grandparents Doug and Sue. Whether he's walking down the venetian parkway, riding in Dean and Jackie's golf cart, or chasing lizards in the backyard, Winston cherishes these moments. And just in case Doug and Sue forget his 8pm Greenie, Winston will make sure to remind them! As Winston continues to make waves in his Florida home and dazzle everyone with his tricks, one thing is certain: his story will keep making a splash in the hearts of everyone who hears it.

Hearty Referral

Blair Post, HAS, BC-HIS, ACA

Board Certified Hearing Instrument Sciences

As a small business owner, the best compliment I receive is a referral. Identifying who needs a referral can be a bit tricky. I created a story to help my clients recognize who might need my services.

When you dine out with friends you may notice someone who keeps saying “huh” or “what”. This indicates they can’t hear well in a noisy setting and tends to be a first indicator of a hearing loss.

Research has indicated that on average people take seven years to seek help for their hearing loss. Maybe if enough people ask, they might get the help sooner.

Over the years I have had referrals of new clients who tell me they were out to dinner with friends who recommended they come see me. And now, I have my referral suggestion taken to a whole new level.

A lovely lady, with a great heart, was out to dinner with friends. She heard a gentleman sitting at another table saying “huh” and “what” a lot. After a while she turned around, interrupted him and suggested he come and see me.

The happy ending is he did come in. His wife had been begging him to get his hearing checked for years, but it took a stranger’s suggestion to convince him.

The gentleman’s visit to my office revealed that he had a more severe hearing loss than he initially thought. With the help of hearing aids, he can now hear better, and his wife is happier when they go out to dinner.

If you notice someone saying “Huh” or “What” often, suggest they might need to come see me. By taking this simple step, you can help them improve their quality of life and build a stronger relationship with their loved ones.

Charity and Disaster Fraud

Charity fraud schemes seek donations for organizations that do little or no work—instead, the money goes to the fake charity’s creator.

While these scams can happen at any time, they are especially prevalent after high-profile disasters. Criminals often use tragedies to exploit you and others who want to help.

After a natural disaster or other emergency, unethical contractors and other scammers may commit insurance fraud, re-victimizing people whose homes or businesses have been damaged. Sometimes these fraudsters even pretend to be affiliated with the government, when they are not. If you need any post-disaster repairs, do your research before hiring any contractor.

Protect Yourself. The following tips can help you avoid these schemes:

- Give to established charities or groups whose work you know and trust.
- Be aware of organizations with copycat names or names similar to reputable organizations.
- Be wary of new organizations that claim to aid victims of recent high-profile disasters.
- Do your research. Use the Federal Trade Commission's resources to examine the track record of a charity.
- Give using a check or credit card. If a charity or organization asks you to donate through cash, gift card, virtual currency, or wire transfer, it's probably a scam. Learn more about this trick from the FTC.
- Practice good cyber hygiene:
 - Don't click links or open email attachments from someone you don't know.
 - Manually type out links instead of clicking on them.
 - Don't provide any personal information in response to an email, robocall, or robotext.
 - Check the website's address—most legitimate charity organization websites use .org, not .com.
- After a natural disaster or other emergency, carefully vet any contractors before hiring them to work on your home or business.
